Taste of the Trucks

Findlay eateries come with wheels

A quick look at the local food truck scene

By: Faith Zochowski, faithzochowski@thecourier.com

Looking for a fun summer activity that involves food? The Findlay food truck scene is booming, with a plethora of culinary options rolling into town. From Mexican food to barbeque to other fun options, there are plenty of delicious options to discover this summer. Here are a few of the places locals and visitors can check out as the weather warms up.

Taco Fiesta Hinojosa

Taco Fiesta Hinojosa features Mexican cuisine including burritos, quesadillas, salads and nachos. One of their bestsellers is their street tacos with either corn tortillas or their 8” fresh cooked flour tortillas.

“We’re in the community to serve our wonderful customers with the most authentic homemade Mexican food, prepared with love,” said business owner Mari Hinojosa.

NATIONAL FOOD TRUCK DAY

JUNE 30

Taco Fiesta Hinojosa will be parked at multiple locations this summer, including Food Truck Wednesdays at the Marathon Center for the Performing Arts, Boogie on the Block, the Hancock County Fair, and many others. To stay up to date on the truck's whereabouts, visit their Facebook page.

Jonny Burritos

Another take on Mexican eats can be found at Jonny Burritos. Jonny Burritos sells — you guessed it — burritos, which business owner Jon Perkowski has been whipping up from scratch since 2018.

The menu rotates often, but one fan favorite is the “El Jefe”, filled with marinated chicken, corn salsa, cheese and rice. All burritos are served with homemade mild sauce, but if you are looking to add a kick, hot sauce, habanero cheese and house-pickled jalapenos are available as an upgrade.

“Our goal is to make homemade and local food that can be enjoyed around the truck, at home, and by everyone in the family — everybody loves ‘em!” Perkowski said.

Jonny Burritos has a full schedule this summer with many stops in

Findlay. The schedule can be found at streetfoodfinder.com/jonnyburritos

Pull Up and Grill

Pull Up and Grill owner Vern Savage has been bringing delicious meals to the Findlay area since 2018. Everything is homemade at Pull Up and Grill, including the mac and cheese, pasta salad (made by Vern’s wife Diana), and fresh salsa for their bratwurst. Other popular items include pulled pork, chicken wings and cheeseburger sliders, all fresh off the grill. Guests also enjoy two sides with each meal.

The menu changes occasionally, with four to five items offered daily. Savage stays in the local area and enjoys serving at fairs, art shows, school functions and popular town events with the help of Diana and family friend Linda, he said.

“Just making people smile after they eat your food — that’s my biggest thing. People are smiling and walking away happy and that gives us the joy to finish cooking,” Savage said.

More information can be found on Pull Up and Grill’s Facebook page.

Memorable ways to celebrate Dad this Father's Day

Dads do a lot for their families, and Father's Day is the perfect time to acknowledge those efforts. The days when dads would receive a colorful necktie for Father's Day are largely (and, for fathers, thankfully) a relic of the past. Modern Father's Day celebrations tend to involve more careful planning, and the following are some ways to make this year's day for dads one to remember.

- Take Dad on a tour through his own history. The popularity of genealogy has skyrocketed over the last decade-plus, as various firms have made it easier than ever for individuals to trace their family histories. If Dad counts himself among the millions across the globe interested in their family histories, moms and kids can work together to create a virtual tour through that history. Present the history as a printed book or as a video, sharing interesting things you learned about Dad's ancestors but also highlighting key moments in his life. This presentation can be accompanied by a subscription to a genealogy service and a tour of some of Dad's childhood haunts before the family enjoys brunch or dinner in the neighborhood where Dad grew up.

- Take to the great outdoors. Father's Day is a perfect time to enjoy the great outdoors (weather permitting). Plan a day around Dad's favorite outdoor activity. If Dad is an avid fisherman, book a family outing on a charter boat so Dad can focus on catching fish and not navigating. If Dad loves being in natural settings, camp out the night before Father's Day so he can wake up to the sound of birds chirping in the crisp morning air. If Dad has a favorite baseball team, take him out to the ballgame so he can soak up some Father's Day sun or hit the golf course or the beach – whatever the dad in your life prefers!

- Book a private chef. If Dad has a fascination with food, perhaps nothing can make Father's Day more memorable than a delicious meal served by a private chef. Private chefs will do all the work, giving moms and kids more time to spend with Dad throughout the day, and then the whole family can enjoy a special meal made by someone whose specialty is crafting delicious dinners. Offerings vary, but many private chefs handle all the cooking and cleaning. Identify Dad's favorite dish and then look for a chef who specializes in that type of cuisine.

- Appeal to Dad's inner adventurer. Some Dads may just want to relax on Father's Day, while others may prefer a more adventurous celebration. If Dad falls into the latter group, book a fun and adventurous activity the whole family can enjoy together. A kayaking trip, a skydiving session, a round of paintball, or even tickets to a rock concert on Father's Day weekend can connect Dad with his inner adventurer.

There's no shortage of way for families to make this Father's Day one Dad won't soon forget.
