CELEBRATE SUMMER WITH MCPA

By Taiah Douglas
taiahdouglas@thecourier.com

The Marathon Center for the Performing Arts is planning a summer of fun-filled experiences for individuals of all ages. Starting in May, MCPA will be hosting a variety of outdoor events including live music by the waterfalls, the Hancock County Farmers' Market and the weekly food truck court.

"We've been missing the community," said Heather Clow, executive director of the MCPA.

She explained that while MCPA has not hosted an indoor event since March 2020, she is looking forward to bringing the public back together through the socially distanced programs being planned.

A series of outdoor concerts will take place in MCPA's vast parking lot, from June through September. The live, outdoor music will be replacing Findlay's beloved Boogie on Main this year, though organizers are hopeful that Boogie can make its comeback in 2022. Those who purchase tickets for the outdoor shows will have the pleasure of viewing them in individual pods with their families, marked 6 feet apart.

MCPA is also collaborating with the Findlay Hancock County Chamber of Commerce to host Rally in the Alley, an event combining local, live music with food and drinks. Rally in the Alley will be held from 5-8 p.m. Fridays, with free admission.

The summer schedule also includes MCPA's own Lunchtime Live events, held from 11:30 a.m. to 1:30 p.m. Tuesdays at the Waterfall Pavilion at Riverside Park. Admission is free.

The Hancock County Farmers' Market returns to MCPA from 4-6 p.m. Thursdays, May 6 through Oct. 28; and food truck Wednesdays return from 11 a.m. to 2 p.m., May 5 through Sept. 29.

Summer camps for kids will be held outdoors this year. The performing arts summer camp will take place July 12-16 for students in grades one through five, and there will be a Youtheatre Academy, July 19-23, for grades six through 12. Clow said social distancing will be mandatory, campers will be required to wear masks, and there will be much cleaning and sanitizing in preparation.

Following is a list of scheduled events that are confirmed thus far:

DOG TAGS AND COMBAT BOOTS

Frederick David Adams US ARMY, VIETNAM, 1967-68

Dave Morrow is a peacetime veteran of the USAF and Utah Army National Guard. He was an educator and an EMT. Dave is currently a documentary photographer and writer. He created the website <https://dogtagsandcombatboots.org/> to share the stories of our Veterans. The site is dedicated to the stories of Vietnam Veterans and to the veteran Women Warriors of Ohio. It is hoped to be a place for healing.

Frederick David Adams was born April 20th, 1947 in Findlay, Ohio. Born two months early he weighed only 2.5 pounds. His parents were Frederick Orville, who owned a shoe repair shop and his mother Sarah, whose friends called her "Sally".

Fred, (who also goes by Dave), was born into a family with a long legacy of serving in the military. His grandfather served in France during WWI. His father served in the Army during WWII, in a segregated re-supply unit on Tinian Island. This was an island captured from the Japanese and used as key base for the balance of the war. His father would earn the rank of 1st Sergeant.

Fred graduated in the second class of the new Findlay High School in 1965 at the age of eighteen. He worked for the Ohio State department of Highways for one year before enlisting in the army. He picked the MOS 62B, heavy equipment mechanic, a skill he knew he could use after his enlistment was up.

He completed basic training at Ft. Benning. He was then assigned to heavy equipment school at Ft. Belvoir, Virginia, where he trained on maintenance and repair on bulldozers, scoop loaders, graders, air compressors, welding and how to service five different diesel engines.

Fred was sent to Ft. Know in 1967, assigned to the US Army Armor and Engineer board. Fred worked with the Sheridan 551 tank, the Raider and the new 715 Jeep/truck. He would stay there until October of 1967, when orders were cut for him to go to Vietnam.

After a month-long visit home, Fred arrived in Pleiku in December of 1967, where he was assigned for a time to 510th Engineer company, 62nd Maintenance Battalion providing direct support to various units stationed at the Pleiku complex. He was tasked to be the liaison mechanic to the 937th Group, 70th Combat Engineer Battalion located on "Engineer Hill". He would arrive there in February of 1968, right after Tet. The soldiers lived in tents, worked 12-20-hour days, doing maintenance and repair and often got little sleep as alert sirens were constantly going off at night. The men, armed with M-4 rifles, would run from tents to a sandbagged trench, either engaging the enemy, or staying until the alert was cancelled.

Fred kept the bulldozers and scoop loaders running for the stone quarry. Then when the trucks were loaded up with gravel to repair roads and bridges constantly destroyed by the VC, he would help provide convoy security riding on one of the gun trucks. Fred turned 21 in April, was promoted to the rank of Sergeant in June of 1968, and assigned to be Sergeant of the guard on a rotating basis, checking on perimeter towers, bunkers and guards.

In December of 1968, Sgt. Adams left country arriving at Ft. Lewis in San Francisco. He vividly remembers the demonstrators, how they waved signs and spit on the returning soldiers. Fred had purchased a 1964, metallic blue Plymouth Fury, with a 383 under the hood which was waiting for him. He finished out his enlistment at Ft. Leonard Wood and mustered out in July of 1969.

Returning home to civilian life was a mixed adjustment for Fred. For years loud noises, like car backfires, caused him to jump. He lost track of days and he never sat in a restaurant unless his back was to a wall with all entrances in sight, where he could always watch people. (Like a majority of Vietnam veterans, Agent Orange exposure has led to Fred having lung and breathing issues and prostate cancer.)

The military life was still in his blood however and Fred enlisted in the Ohio National Guard where he served with the 837th Engineers from 1973 to 1983. He transferred to the Army Reserves in Toledo and served until 1990. He left the Army with the rank of Sergeant 1st Class.

Returning to the civilian work force, Fred joined with "Project Transition." He joined Chrysler Casting running a forklift for several years. Fred then worked for Chrysler Casting and Marathon Oil. In 2004, after 28 years with Marathon Oil he retired.

Fred met Rita Warner at the Elks Club and they were married on July 4th, 1970. They set up home in Findlay. They were married for twenty years and had three children Tisha, Rick and Scott. Fred also has another son Barry and between the four children, he has 16 grandchildren and seven great-grandchildren. Fred and his long-time companion Jan have been together nearly twenty years.

Keeping the family military legacy going, his son Rick was active Army and his granddaughter Mahilia served in Ohio National Guard.

Fred stayed active in his community, working closely with the Junior Achievement program at Marathon and being a Cubmaster for Pack 322 for ten years. He spoke for fifteen years at local schools about his war experience. He was a member of AMVETS, DAV and VFW. He was a steward trustee of Mason Chapel Church.

Sgt. Adams passed away in Feb. 2020.

Monthly support groups for Youth, Adults, and Allies allow inclusive spaces for peer guidance and support. All groups run on Wednesday evenings starting at 7pm. We also run a monthly book club and various socials, we are always looking for new social programming ideas. The aim of our programming is to provide high-quality services that are responsive to the needs of the LGBTQ+ community.

GRADIENT EDUCATION & ADVOCACY

We focus on building allyship through diversity and inclusion education offerings. Opening up spaces for challenging conversations around discrimination and advocacy allows opportunities for growth. The aim of our education and advocacy work is to improve tolerance and respect in the community.
