Season of caring is here with Toys for Tots

By Angela LaRosa
angelalarosa@thecourier.com

As the season of giving approaches, with Thanksgiving around the corner and Christmas following soon after, various campaigns fire up and make it their mission to put a smile on the faces of everyone they can. One of those initiatives is Toys for Tots, which sees people gathering new and unwrapped toys in the months leading up to Christmas to give to children in the community each holiday season.

“The biggest thing is that every child — despite their situation, despite what’s going on in their family — deserves a Christmas,” said Larry DeVelvis, campaign coordinator for the Hancock County area. “I look forward to it every year.”

The U.S. Marine Corps Reserves have been carrying out the annual campaign for 75 years — Findlay has participated for 34 years, and DeVelvis has been at it for 21 years himself. Every year they’re more than happy to volunteer for it. Many are even former active-duty Marines, including DeVelvis. “We’re doing it out of the kindness of our hearts,” he said. DeVelvis delivered toys with his wife on Christmas Day last year. “We’re happy to take toys to those families,” he said.

Although nothing is distributed until December, the James Joy McClelland Marine Corps Detachment 1148 has already started setting collection bins up throughout the area for the Toys for Tots campaign. There are over 100 collection sites within DeVelvis’ area, which includes Larry DeVelvis, left, coordinator for Toys for Tots of Hancock County and Southern Wood County, and Hancock County Sheriff Michael Heldman speak at the sheriff’s office.

MARINE CORPS RESERVE

cities like Bowling Green and locations such as the University of Findlay, the North Baltimore Fire Station, Hanco and more.

“We’ll be taking care of all the kids here in Hancock County and the southern part of Wood County,” DeVelvis said. “If people see those boxes and jars and donate, they will stay in Hancock County.”

Members of the detachment league will be at the Findlay Village Mall on Saturdays and Sundays from noon-5 p.m. and the Tiffin Ave. Walmart on Sundays from 10 a.m.- 4 p.m. starting Nov. 25 to accept toys and monetary donations. “Our Marine Corps Detachment League is a big help to get these toys purchased and distributed,” he said.

So, how did it all begin? According to their website, toysfortots.org, Toys for Tots began in 1947 as the brain child of Marine Corps Reserve Major Bill Hendricks. Actually it was his wife, Diane, who was the real inspiration. She had a few handcrafted dolls and asked Bill to deliver them to an agency that supports children in need.

When Bill reported back to his wife that he could not find such an organization, she instructed him to “start one!”. Maj Hendricks and the Marines in his reserve unit in LA collected and distributed 5,000 toys in 1947.

Seeing such successful community engagement in 1947, the Commandant directed all Marine Reserve Sites to implement a TFT campaign transforming it into a national community action program in 1948.

Bill Hendrick’s civilian job was Director of Public Relations at Warner Brothers Studios. He was friends with many celebrities who he asked to help support the newly created Marine Toys for Tots Program. As a personal friend and as a favor to Bill, Walt Disney designed the first Toys for Tots poster which included a miniature three-car train that was subsequently adopted as the Toys for Tots logo.

The Marine Toys for Tots Foundation, an IRS recognized 501 (c) (3) not-for-profit charity, was established in 1991 at the behest of the Marine Corps to help run and support the Marine Toys for Tots Program.

The Foundation raises funds, purchases toys, provides promotional and support materials, manages all funds raised and donated, solicits corporate support, educates the public, and handles day-to-day operations.

Presently, the Marine Toys for Tots Program distributes an average of 18 million toys to 7 million less fortunate children annually. What is the local impact? Last year alone, in Hancock County 5,477 toys were distributed and 1,699 children were supported. Wood County distributed 24,840 toys, supporting 6,200 children and Seneca County distributed 6,817 toys with 1,336 children supported.

Crustless pie a treat for those with gluten intolerance

Those with Celiac disease or gluten intolerances must be mindful of the foods they consume. Meals or desserts containing gluten, a protein found in grains like wheat, semolina, rye, barley, graham, spelt, farina, and more, can trigger intestinal distress and other symptoms. “Crustless Libby’s® Famous Pumpkin Pie” is a variation on traditional pumpkin pie served at Thanksgiving and Christmas gatherings. Without the crust, individuals who avoid gluten can still dive into that pumpkin-and-spice combination that’s so popular around the holiday season. Enjoy this recipe, courtesy of Libby’s® Pumpkin.

Crustless Libby’s® Famous Pumpkin Pie

Makes 8 servings

3/4 cup granulated sugar
1 teaspoon ground cinnamon
1/2 teaspoon salt
1/2 teaspoon ground ginger

1/4 teaspoon ground cloves
2 large eggs

1 can (15 oz.) Libby’s® 100%

Pure Pumpkin

1 can (12 oz.) Nestlé®

Carnation Evaporated Milk

Nonstick cooking spray

Whipped cream (optional)

Preheat oven to 325 F.

Glass baking dishes without crust require a cooler oven, and in most cases, a longer baking time.

Spray 9-inch-round glass pie dish with nonstick cooking spray or lightly grease bottom of baking pan or baking dish. Mix sugar, cinnamon, salt, ginger and cloves in a small bowl. Beat eggs in a large bowl. Stir in pumpkin and sugar-spice mixture. Gradually stir in evaporated milk.

Bake 55 to 60 minutes or until a knife inserted near center comes out clean.

Cool on wire rack for 2 hours. Serve immediately or refrigerate.

Cops and Kids Go Shopping (formerly known as "Shop with a Cop")

The FOP's traditional shopping event takes place every December. Local school districts help determine children who would benefit from a little extra help at Christmas or a positive interaction with law enforcement. FOP members then meet these children at Meijer for a morning of Christmas shopping. Each child receives $200 to purchase necessities first but save some for toys.

Cops and Kids Go Back to School

The only program reserved for law enforcement, Cops and Kids Go Back to School hosts a picnic for families and provides them with the school supplies required for a successful school year, mental health resources, haircuts, self-care and food.

Cops and Kids Go To College

Following the tragic loss of Officer Douglas Akers in 2018, the Foundation honors his memory in the form of a scholarship. The amount and eligibility requirements of the scholarship are being developed.

Cops and Kids Get Involved

The FOP participates in or sponsors community events such as the annual Findlay Halloween Parade, Flag City Mascot Olympics and Night Out, Bikes, Books & Badges Bicycle Rodeo, Children's Mentoring Connection Bowling for Kids, Hancock County Fair, and Findlay Service League's Purse Bingo. Each of these events provides an opportunity for our cops & kids to spend quality time together.

Cops and Kids Get Creative

In partnership with local artmaking businesses, the FOP invites children to create with a lodge member. Whether it's doing a Book & Brush at Painter's Pottery or painting canvases with Awakening Minds Art, our members are making memories with our kids.

#GivingTuesday

Participants need not make their GivingTuesday efforts part of any official event associated with the day, but those who want to can visit local charity websites to look for volunteering opportunities in and around their communities. Many local opportunities can be found at the United Way-Hancock County website – visit liveunitedhancockcounty.org/volunteersunited for the current options. Employers and even local governments also may sponsor or host events on GivingTuesday. Some organizations may match users' donations up to a predetermined dollar amount, and users can enter #GivingTuesday into the Twitter search engine to discover such efforts. Parents can even help children find ways to participate by visiting GivingTuesdaySpark.org.

As defined on the #GivingTuesday Twitter page “From a viral hashtag to a global movement, #GivingTuesday is reimaging a world build upon shared humanity and generosity”.

Learn more at GivingTuesday.org.

describe the event as a “movement that unleashes the power of radical generosity around the world.” GivingTuesday is often characterized as hashtag activism, which involves social media users employing Twitter hashtags to show support for a cause. Twitter hashtags do not utilize spaces between words, so GivingTuesday references adhere to this practice.

The organizers behind GivingTuesday note that the day is about all types of giving. It is a global effort that emphasizes the power of generosity. Individuals who want to participate can donate money, their time, food and/or clothing; start an advocacy campaign; help a neighbor; or commit an act of generosity.

The period between Thanksgiving and New Year's Day is widely referred to as the holiday season. Holidays such as Christmas, Hanukkah, Saint Nicholas Day and Kwanzaa all take place in this typically six-week window. During this period, there's another, possibly lesser known, event that can elicit many of the same warm feelings generated by more recognizable holidays.

GivingTuesday is held on the Tuesday after Thanksgiving every year. Though that typically means the day is celebrated after the calendar turns to December, this year GivingTuesday takes place on Tuesday, November 29.

So, what is GivingTuesday? GivingTuesday organizers
