to check out if you're looking to make some fall memories or just looking for a place to wear your favorite sweater after it's been in the closet all summer.

Whether you like pumpkin spice or you take your coffee black, as the weather cools down the drinks begin to heat up. Next time you find yourself craving a warm beverage or treat, check out one of the downtown

Findlay coffee shops offering a variety of seasonal flavors. According to Lisa Allen, owner of The Baker's Café, pumpkin and apple are the main flavors of the season at her location, as well as anything with spice, cinnamon, ginger and cardamom. "We love fall at the café. From sweet treats to coffees and cocktails, we have it all," said Allen.

Also located in the heart of Findlay, Coffee Amici offers a variety of fall coffee flavors as well as apple cider hot, iced, or frozen, and many different fall treats, including their pumpkin scones. If you're looking for a flavorful fall, visit one of the local favorites and check out their seasonal menu.

Another thing that many people associate with the autumn season is the scent of something sugary or pumpkin. Fall can be a great time to bust out some candles and indulge in aromatherapy while the leaves change outside. If you like to purchase candles for the season, Elida Candle Company in downtown Findlay offers scents like pumpkin pie, pumpkin apple, pumpkin buttercream, and fallen leaves.

An activity this is sure to be fun is the Clay Ghost Class at the Findlay Art League, sponsored by The Community Foundation. The class is offered Oct. 2nd and 3rd. The Findlay Art League offers several lessons and classes throughout the year and this event is for those looking to create their own spooky creatures to take home. Fall decorations are a great way to get yourself in the Halloween spirit, and this family friendly clay ghost class can help to embrace your artistic side. To reserve a spot, visit FindlayArtLeague.org or call 419-422-7847.

Seasonal items, including pumpkins, can be found at Findlay's Brinkman's Market.

Holiday themed charcuterie boards are all the rage, and Brinkman's selection of fine meats and cheeses could make for an excellent appetizer or snack this fall.

And it isn't October everywhere you turn and another great place to pick some up is at Wolfe's Produce. Located on OH-37 Wolfe's has an excellent pumpkin selection of all shapes and sizes, and they also sell products to feed your fall taste buds. Check out Wolfe's for fall foods to indulge in, including their special gummy pumpkins.

Whatever it is that makes fall special to you, Findlay offers many ways to embrace the colder weather and enjoy the season.

POP CULTURE COSTUMES ARE BOUND TO BE BIG THIS YEAR

One of the best ways to get in on the Halloween costume fun is to choose a look that borrows from popular culture. This year there is no shortage of inspiration for those who want to look like their favorite movie, television and game characters. Of course, if you prefer the traditional costume ghosts, vampires and witches are always a fun choice, too.

COMIC BOOK HERO “FRENEMIES”

Marvel’s popular characters joined forces in “Deadpool & Wolverine” this year with the titular stars played by Ryan Reynolds and Hugh Jackman, respectively. Whether you’re team red or team yellow, dressing up as one of these action characters is certainly going to be popular for Halloween 2024.

WHIRLWIND ROMANCE

Fans of the “Bridgerton” television series know that the third season follows the romance between Penelope Featherington and Colin Bridgerton. This is a perfect couples’ costume, and one that will be lavished at any Halloween gathering.

TRAVIS AND TAYLOR

The last year-plus has been notable for both football fans and Swifties. Three-time Super Bowl champion Travis Kelce and pop superstar Taylor Swift became the power couple of record, earning fans from both sides of the football/music aisle. Dressing up as this duo is sure to get rave reviews.

COUNTRY VIBES

Beyoncé ushered in a new era of country music in 2024 with the release of her album “Cowboy Carter.” Emulating the pop-to-country princess is a great way to turn heads this Halloween.

THE “JUICE IS LOOSE”

It’s been 36 years since audiences enjoyed the hijinks of Beetlejuice, the star character of Tim Burton’s horror-comedy. With the release of “Beetlejuice, Beetlejuice,” complete with most of the original actors reprising their roles, there’s no question that Beetlejuice, Lydia and Delia costumes will be trending this October.

POLITICAL OPPONENTS

The race to the White House this year certainly has had its twists and turns. Political figures often are in fashion for Halloween costumes, and this year that is bound to be the case with individuals dressing up as the Republican and Democratic presidential candidates.

ANOTHER PINK LADY

While “Barbie” was the chic lady in pink for 2023, thanks to the announcement of the new prequel series dubbed “Elle,” Elle Woods from the “Legally Blonde” franchise is sure to be trending this Halloween.

WACKY WEDNESDAY

Now that another series installment is in the works, there will be plenty of people dressed up as Wednesday Addams this Halloween.

Looking to pop culture yields plenty of inspiration for Halloween costumes each year. What will inspire your costume this year?
